

All.Can payments to healthcare professionals, patient groups and non-governmental organisations

2018

As part of All.Can's commitment to transparency in respect of the European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations (EFPIA) code to disclose payments made to healthcare professionals, patient groups and non-governmental organisations, we have made the following payments:

Dr Viv Muthu (independent consultant, non-practising healthcare professional): £765

The International Brain Tumour Alliance: £307

The European Cancer Patient Coalition: £102

Save Your Skin Foundation: £2,264

These payments were made in relation to travel and subsistence claims from attending All.Can meetings and events during 2018.

All recipients gave consent for All.Can to publish these payments.

All.Can is a multi-stakeholder initiative involving patient, clinical, academic and industry experts as well as policymakers. We aim to help define better solutions for sustainable cancer care and improve patient outcomes in the future. The All.Can initiative is made possible with financial support from Bristol-Myers Squibb (main sponsor), Amgen, MSD and Johnson & Johnson (sponsors) and Varian (contributor), with additional non-financial (in kind) support from Intacare and Goings-On. The secretariat to All.Can is provided by The Health Policy Partnership Ltd.
