

HOSTED BY LIEVE WIERINCK MEP

30 January 2018, 12:00–14:30

Members' Salon, European Parliament

MEPs AGAINST CANCER Seminar

Improving outcomes,
driving efficiency in cancer care:
How do we learn from best practice?

In collaboration with:

12:00–12:10 First course served

12:10–12:25 Welcome, aims and objectives

Lieve Wierinck MEP

12:25–12:35 Brief introduction about the
MEPs Against Cancer (MAC) group

Sakari Karjalainen,
Association of European Cancer Leagues (ECL)

12:35–12:50 Improving outcomes, driving efficiency in cancer care – the key issues for policymakers

Suzanne Wait,
All.Can secretariat

12:50–13:10 How can this be done across the cancer care pathway? Examples of best practice from different countries and perspectives

Lydia Makaroff,
European Cancer Patient Coalition (ECPC)

13:10–13:20 Main course served

13:20–13:40 The ECCO paper on access to innovation:
focusing on what makes the greatest difference to patients

Ian Banks,
European Cancer Organisation (ECCO)

13:40 Dessert served

13:40–14:20 Round-table discussion: How can we amplify best practice examples across Europe – what is the role for the EU and Member States?

- 13:40–14:00 Responses from the panel
- 14:00–14:20 Audience question & answer

Moderator: Lydia Makaroff, ECPC
Panel: Dirk Van den Steen, DG Sante
 Ian Banks, ECCO
 Amadou Diarra, Bristol-Myers Squibb
 Pascal Garel, European Hospital and Healthcare
 Federation (HOPE)
 Rosna Mortuza, International Consortium for Health Outcomes Measurement (ICHOM)
 Herb Riband, Amgen

14:20–14:30 Policy response and conclusions

Lieve Wierinck MEP